Rulemaking Meeting Calendar

The Air Quality Department actively solicits participation in the rule development process through public workshops, oral proceedings and public hearings. Documents are in Adobe (PDF) format. Download the free Adobe Reader.

For additional information on a specific calendar entry, click on the links below. Links in the "Event" column provide details on meeting logistics and contact information. Selecting an entry from the "Event Materials" column will link you to the document(s) related to that calendar event.

For additional information about upcoming workshops, oral proceedings, or public hearings, please contact the Planning and Analysis Division by phone (602) 506-6790 or e-mail: AQPlanning@mail.maricopa.gov.

A complete list of currently adopted air quality rules and ordinances is maintained on the Department's "Adopted Rules" webpage, available by clicking here.

NOTE: The information provided is subject to change without notice, and previously announced meetings may be cancelled or postponed. Be sure to consult this calendar for the latest available information.
