Curriculum

The Nadaburg Unified School District No. 81 has adopted the Teaching Strategies Creative Curriculum for the early childhood programs. The Creative Curriculum is aligned to the 38 measurements in the GOLD assessment program, and align to the Arizona Early Childhood Education standards. This curriculum was selected due to the high quality of materials, the intentional development of components, and the ability to implement. When implementing this curriculum we utilized internal expertise and external consultants to support teachers in developing their understanding.

Ratios

Ratios of preschool in the Nadaburg Unified School District:

	Age 12 Months to 36 Months	3 – 4 Year Olds	4 – 5 Year Olds	School-Age Community Education (not School Day)
Teacher to Student	1:4	1:8	1:12	1:20
Classroom Maximum	8 children	16 Children	20 Children	30 Children

These ratios and levels of supervision must be maintained throughout the day which includes transitions, rest time, outdoor play, or any other activity that may arise during the day. Staff are required to consistently and constantly supervise children, and are forbidden from engaging in other activities such as use of cell phones, technology devices, or leaving the work environment for non-work related reasons excluding regularly scheduled breaks. Breaks, lunch, and out-of-class time is scheduled to assure an alternate person can be in the classroom.

Community Relationships

The Nadaburg School has developed an on-site Family Resource Center. The Family Resource Center has an office area for local residents to make copies, use the Internet, obtain notary services, and other basic office needs. We also offer information and referral services with a variety of contact information on a multitude of topics. The center provides workshops in the area of parenting, education attainment, employment support, language classes, and car seat safety.

Nadaburg School has strong partnerships in Early Childhood Education. Our strongest partnership is with First Things First who sponsors our scholarships, Annual Health Fair, and, most recently, our United Way Born Learning Path. We also have developed a partnership with the Bennevilla Resource Center which provides parent workshops and Grandparents Raising Children support groups. The district has also partnered with Expect More Arizona, Westside Impact, and the Greater Phoenix Elementary Management Council.
